Mahoney Ulbrich Christiansen & Russ P.A. was named to the sixth Accounting MOVE PROJECT Best CPA Firms for Women List by the American Society of Accountants and the American Woman's Society of Certified Public Accountants. Mahoney Ulbrich was one of 10 firms recognized for demonstrating three characteristics:

- Consistent, measurable progress in advancing women.
- Proven and continually evolving programs that retain and advance women.
- Evidence that the firm's advancement of women is intrinsic to its growth and succession goals.

Newly appointed managing partner Roz Allyson recently merged back into a full-time schedule after years of flexible hours and alternative schedules, illustrating that the firm offers numerous success tracks. "We are delighted to be recognized for the flexible programs we have implemented to help employees advance their careers and integrate their work and personal lives," said Bonnie Russ, one of the founding shareholders.
